BRAG-WORTHY BLOWOUTS

It's a fact of life: You'll never be able to do your hair as well as someone else can. That's why we're pretty much obsessed with Blo.Dri, a new all-styling, no-cuts salon downtown. With a shampoo and blowout starting at just $25—and the perfect location for a sneak-out-of-work style session (they welcome walk-ins)—it's made for those days when you've rushed from the gym to the office but need to get glam, fast, for dinner. Want to kick off a girl's night out? Blo.Dri offers a $40 Champagne blowout, which pairs bubbly and a gift with your hair therapy. Tack on goodies like flat iron or rollers for an extra charge, but we're not kidding: Stylists there can work magic with just a blow-dryer and a brush. *408 N.
